Arraigned before United States Commissioner Hitchcock Friday afternoon the seven prisoners were held in jail ranging from $5,000 to $25,000 each.

Steinberg Gogel, Abraham Goldsmith and Gustav Galles were held in $25,000; Irving Weinstein in $15,000; and Gustav Feldman and Harry Shapiro in $5,000 each.

YOUTH LACKING IN PURPOSE, ABBOTT, AUTHOR, ASSERTS

Don't Excuse Yourself From Responsibility, and Win Your Aims, He Urges.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The young man of today is not slipping, but he undertakes his responsibilities in an unsettled fashion.

Such is the diagnosis of national character made today by Dr. Lyman Abbott, who was making his first strides in the world of business and achievement before the Civil war was fought.

Editor, author, clergyman and lecturer, this grand old man of the literary world, is still in the harness at 88 and only this week was decorated with the legion of honor by the government of France, in recognition of work for the advancement of mankind. As editor-in-chief of the Outlook, he spends several days each week on the job.

"I believe this honor came to me because I have always had a definite settled purpose in view to live by," Dr. Abbott said, in a statement to International News Service.

"I have made it a rule to be at my office, and so make the effort accordingly. It is the easiest thing in the world to excuse one's self from responsibility, but it never pays.

"A man without a purpose is a man without a sail. Nor can the man of today get much farther in the world than a ship could without a sail.

"So I would say to the young man of today, have a purpose. If it is a worthy one it does not matter so much what it may be—philanthropy, religion, business, sport—but it must be something that will cause you to have to make decisions and stick to them and something that will make you settled in your mind as to what you believe.

"The young man of today is fully awake to his responsibility, but he goes about them in an unsettled fashion.

"He must keep his purposes fixed in mind though the earth seems to fall about him. He must keep in mental and physical trim to carry his purpose through, and not let others discourage him.

"A man gets out of the world, good or bad, just what he puts into it."

BELIEVE EUROPE WILL GAIN FROM ECONOMIC MEET

when almost everybody else seemed in despair.

The conference solemnly adjourned after adopting a provisional non-aggression pact, approving arrangements for The Hague meeting and adopting the report of the economic commission with its recommendations for the rebuilding of disorganized Europe.

Admittedly everything now depends on the Russian communists. If they continue as intransigent in Holland as in Italy, there seems little prospect of an agreement with Russia. Meanwhile the desperate straits of the Russian people are in the minds of all the delegates.

EAGLE BOAT STRANDS ON LONG ISLE SHORE

AMAGANSETT, L. I., May 19.—Eagle Boat No. 17, part of the navy flotilla bound from Hampton Roads to New London, Conn., went hard aground in the breakers off East Hampton early today during a fog.

Of 110 men aboard the submarine chaser, all but Commander T. F. Withers and a bare skeleton crew had reached shore by mid-morning, many of them by severe struggles after five-foot waves had washed them from the life rafts.

The coast guard set up its breeches buoy apparatus, but at 9 o'clock no need had developed for removing the rest of the crew, and baggage was coming ashore over the line. At low tide the water was too shallow to allow tugs to approach, but it is thought that it would be possible to refloat the submarine chaser at high tide.

Legionnaire Sails Today To Greet British 'Buddies'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 19.—Nelson Jackson of Burlington Vt., a vice commander of the American Legion, and who is said to be the first person who ever crossed the American continent in an automobile, will sail from New York Saturday for England, where he will deliver the greetings of the American Legion to the British Legion. Mr. Jackson served in the medical corps, receiving several decorations.

Convicted on Vice Counts, Trio Appeals to Superior

The trio of ill fame case in which Minnie Targart, Ruth Mason and Dora Eaton were named defendants was Friday taken on appeal to Superior court when City Judge DuComb found the trio guilty. The Targart women, who were fined $25 and costs, the alleged inmates $5 and costs each. The case resulted from a police raid conducted at 424 1/2 S. Michigan st. on April 6.

Two Fined Heavily for Driving While "Drunk"

Both charged with driving their automobiles while intoxicated, Alvin I. Rogers, 19 E. Marion st., and V. M. Schuler, 1113 Lincoln way, W. were in city court Friday assessed the maximum fines of $50 and costs each.

WEATHER FAILS TO DAMPEN ARDOR OF LOCAL CONTESTANTS

Interest in Work of Good Will Committee Mounts—Standing Altered.

have received help in the shape of implements or supplies, will return more than the cost of the goods months, or even years later. Most of the real demand for help has been for things which cannot be procured in the devastated regions for any money, such as books, papers, etc. Consequently, the money being raised in Good Will elections will be utilized again and again in the greatest of humanitarian work.

"France regards the American Committee for Devastated France and the work which it is doing as the symbol that America does not forget."

Show Originality. Some of the candidates have asked that further examples of originality in campaigning be published. The Good Will Editor today selected the following "stunts" used by candidates in Good Will elections in other cities:

One of the most striking instances reported was that of a candidate in the recent Springfield contest. A picture of the Twentieth Century Limited, painted by a Boston and Albany railroad man, was presented to one candidate, a telephone operator of the B. & A., in the interest of her candidacy. The heads of the road, not to be outdone by an employee, loaned the candidate an engine, cab and caboose and a volunteer crew, and permitted her to take the picture over every mile of track of the B. & A. system. The young lady raised more than 5,000 votes as a result of this trip.

In Schenectady, a candidate rounded up all her friends who had gardens. These friends made her donations of flowers and vegetables which she sold and applied the proceeds to her voting strength in the contest.

A candidate in Worcester inaugurated a chain telephone system for the sale of cakes, pies and doughnuts, which were donated to her by a Worcester baker. She called her friends, each of whom called four others, and in this manner sales were found in large quantities. The candidate received more than 2,000 votes as the result of this scheme.

From time to time during the balance of the campaign, the Good Will Editor will tell of other instances of originality in campaigning. At present there is one issue of paramount importance: Get votes!

HUNT STUDENTS FROM INDIANA UNIVERSITY

BLOOMINGTON, May 19.—Disappearance of William Pearson, 19-year-old sophomore at Indiana university, brought his father, Dr. E. D. Pearson down from Wabash station. The only clue as to his whereabouts was a letter he wrote to a friend from Louisville, Ky., said he was expecting to fall in one of his subjects and he believed he would enlist in the medical corps of the United States army to complete his education.

STEAMSHIP HELPLESS IN GULF OF MEXICO

KEYWEST, Fla., May 19.—The steamship Jane Lew, bound from Savannah to New Orleans is helpless in the Gulf of Mexico and drifting at the rate of three miles an hour, according to wireless message received at the station here today.

MILLIONAIRE, SHOT, MAY SURVIVE CRISIS

CHICAGO, May 19.—Edward L. Thornton, millionaire lumberman, mysteriously shot last Tuesday, had a desperate fighting chance for life. It was stated at the Grant hospital today, Mrs. Thornton was at his side.

The shooting occurred in the lumberman's luxurious apartments. The family refused to discuss the affair with the police.

Elkhart Lunch Room Owner Sentenced on Booze Count

ELKHART, Ind., May 19.—William H. Keeth, one of the proprietors of the Twentieth Century lunch room, 414 E. Main st., this city, was today sentenced to the penal farm for four months and fined $250 by a Superior court jury for violation of the liquor laws.

Rufus Moran, Keeth's partner in business, will go on trial on similar charges this week.

FACTORIES BUSY, YET GERMANY AT 'COLLAPSE EDGE'

Consul General Lang Explains "Prosperity" of Country—Asks Loan.

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY
Special to The News-Times.
NEW YORK, May 19.—Sart Lang is the German "Coal Oil Johnny."

"I shudder to think what a spendthrift I am," he says. "In two months in America I've spent a wagon load of money."

Lang is German consul general to New York and for two months was charge d'affaires at Washington and acting ambassador until the arrival May 13 of Ambassador Otto L. Wiedfeldt.

"It cost a million marks to bring my furniture and household goods from Germany," says Lang.

"Unkept of the German embassy cost several million marks a month. The government has to pay the enormous amounts because of the low exchange."

"It cost my wife and me 150,000 marks for steamship passage to New York. To live we spend 150,000 marks a month—enough for a couple to live on a year and a half at home."

"When we go out to lunch it costs us 1,000 marks. With that same amount my mother, in Germany, lives two months."

First Envoy Since War. Lang was the first envoy sent here by Germany since the war. He is under medium height, with a bald head, a fringe of light hair, a graying mustache and blue eyes.

"It is not so hard a job as I thought it would be," he said. "I have been treated very well. I think hostility toward Germany is disappearing. People seem to believe that our present government is trying to do the right thing."

Outlines Situation

By KARL LANG
Charge d'affaires, German Embassy at Washington, and Consul-General to New York.

(Copyright, 1922, by NEA Service)
NEW YORK, May 19.—The collapse of Germany, and consequently of other European nations, is inevitable if the United States continues to stand aside.

Financial collapse may come any time. May 21, when another reparations payment is due, will be a critical day.

Germany needs speedy and considerable reduction of reparations payment and a breathing interval of at least a number of years in which no payments are made. Germany also needs a considerable loan, in which we hope the United States will take part.

Foreigners traveling in Germany are easily led into a misconception of conditions. Factories are running and there is very little unemployment. There are even signs of luxury in the larger cities, especially in hotels, and foreigners often conclude a certain prosperity exists.

Business Reparations. The truth is that this prosperity to a very great extent is absorbed by payment of reparations and by increased imports of foodstuffs which are necessary because of the decline of German agriculture.

Reparations paid last year were one and a half billion gold marks—the product of the work of a million men and women.

The cost of living in Germany in August, 1921, was 14 times as much as before the war. In March, 1922, it was 22 times as much.

Grain costs 53 times as much. Consumption of meat is only 40 percent of pre-war consumption and bread 24 percent.

Standards of life are lower and taxation is highest of any country.

TO FREE WILLIE DALTON, BELIEF

Bank Clerk Who Walked Away With $772,000 in Bonds is Near Acquittal.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Willie Dalton, the 17-year-old bank clerk, who a year ago impulsively walked out of the Northern Trust Co. with three quarters of a million dollars in bonds, may go scot free.

A jury, after deliberating Willie's case, was dismissed today after its foreman had announced that there was no possibility of an agreement.

The vote was 11 to 1 for conviction. The juror who held out was J. Cunningham, railway clerk.

It was reported that the prosecution of Willie would be dropped. This was his second trial.

Willie, on the stand, related how he committed the biggest theft in the history of Chicago crimes, the stealing of $772,000, because he "couldn't stand the sight of so much money lying around loose."

He accepted the announcement of "no agreement" on the part of the jury calmly.

Ask Dissolution of Farm Implement Co.

DOWAGIAC, May 18.—Voluntary dissolution of the Dowagiac Drill company, pioneers in the manufacture of farm machinery, is asked in a petition filed in circuit court. Until final hearing on the application, September 12, Circuit Judge Des Voignes has named W. F. Hoyt, managing officer, the receiver. Creditors have been in charge of the company since December, 1920, and announced they had reduced the indebtedness from $100,000 to $50,000. Inability to borrow money loans enough to manufacture and market their farm machinery, the creditors said, forced them to dissolve. There will be no loss to creditors.

Reorganization of the company, it was indicated by creditors, would follow settlement of the company's claims.

SIR BURY VISITS AT RENO FOR DIVORCE

WINNIPEG, Man., May 19.—Sir George Bury, former general manager and vice president of the Canadian Pacific railway, obtained a divorce at Reno, Nev., yesterday from Lady Bury. It became known today.

Saloon Gone, Is Court's Orders To All Lawyers

Saloon of Yesteryear Now Called "Soft Drink Parlors," Judge Confides.

Judge Walter A. Funk in circuit court insisted Friday morning that attorneys practicing in his court keep abreast of the times.

When Clifford DuComb, in placing before the court certain facts in a criminal suit declared that the three youths entered a saloon on the west side and began drinking, the judge interrupted to remark:

"We don't have saloons any more." Mr. DuComb. "We call them by another name, 'soft drink parlors.'"

The court's witticism resulted during an argument as to granting a continuance on the trial of Cecil Murray, 22 years old, charged with assault and battery with intent to rob.

The case against Murray was dismissed when the prosecutor's office learned that the complaining witness Dan Graham, had departed this country. It was said in open court that he had become involved in financial difficulties and faced with embezzlement charges had departed for parts unknown.

DuComb declared his client to be an innocent participant in the alleged crime.

NEW CANDIDATES HAVE HARDING'S GOOD WILL

WASHINGTON, May 19.—President Harding was declared at the White House Friday to be greatly interested in the success of every candidate selected by republican voters to carry the party standard at the polls in the November election. The declaration was made in a discussion of the refusal of the republicans in Indiana and Pennsylvania. The president, it was added, has no quarrel with any of those nominated by the republicans in the two states but on the contrary has the best wishes for their success.

It was pointed out on behalf of President Harding, that both Albert J. Beveridge, who defeated Sen. New in Indiana for the republican senatorial nomination, and Gifford Pinchot, who won the gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania, both former progressive leaders, had during their campaigns pledged allegiance to the national administration.
